

JASON NYHUIS

Vice President, Construction | jnyhuis@lamarconstruction.com

Professional Profile

Jason Nyhuis has been with Lamar Construction since 1997 and has spent nearly 20 years in the construction industry. Jason has extensive experience in the fields of construction management, general contracting, and design/build.

As VP of Construction, Jason is responsible for providing leadership to the project management team to effectively deliver projects with satisfied customers on time and within budget. Jason oversees the day to day functions of senior project managers and maintains relationships with key client contacts. In addition, Jason reviews project estimates, ongoing costs, and monthly billing; and coordinates resources with the Vice President of Operations, matching skills and personalities with customers and projects.
